

CHARLO REGIONAL AIRPORT AUTHORITY WELCOMES CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

January 11, 2018

Charlo, NB – The Board of Directors of the Charlo Regional Airport Authority (CRAA) is pleased to welcome Stéphanie Clark as the new Chief Executive Officer of the Charlo Regional Airport (YCL).

Ms. Clark brings with her almost twenty years of experience working for Canadian airport authorities. She brings a strong background in business development, airport operations, and project management. Her success record includes growing the services of many national and international passenger and cargo airlines at small and large airports in Canada.

“On behalf of the Charlo Regional Airport Authority Board of Directors, I would like to welcome Stéphanie back to the Restigouche region”, states David Montgomery, Chair of the Board. “Stéphanie brings with her a wealth of airport knowledge plus valuable experience in stakeholder and government relations that will allow her to address the challenges and opportunities facing the Charlo Regional Airport today and into the future.”

“It is an honour to lead the Charlo Regional Airport and to work closely with our existing partners, stakeholders and regional communities to bring new opportunities to the region”, states Ms. Clark. “The Charlo Regional Airport is an important part of the region’s transportation infrastructure, and I see many opportunities to grow the services currently offered to our region.”

Ms. Clark believes in airports serving their communities. She is a strong advocate of open communication, community involvement and offering the best experience to the airport community both on the operator as well as the customer side. She is looking forward to being a part of the regional business community to promote the services offered at the Charlo Regional Airport.
